BUSINESS EDITOR PATRICIA KOMORA

DEDICATION

As we graduate from LaSalle, we leave behind a variety of people who compose our LaSalle family. This year, two family members are recognized as being so vital to us that they have been woven into the pattern of LaSalle. As life goes on there will undoubtedly be graduates in the years to come who may miss the opportunity to witness the valuable input these individuals have had upon our school. The staff of the Ongiara hopes that our dedication will grant them a permanent place in our thoughts, as their actions and attitudes are hereby preserved forever.

Both of these special people have different roles in the operation of our school, but each faces their job with a complete effort, desire and involvement. At times, their jobs expose them to controversy. Their personalities allow them to match this onus of command with an awareness of the general good.

Each of these individuals has a dedication for their work and a love for the people they meet. Both possess a special understanding which helps them work in cooperation with the people around them. Their combination of patience, wisdom and guidance has earned our admiration and respect. In the LaSalle tradition, they acted for the good of the school and everyone concerned.

Repayment of this kind of dedication may be equaled in the spirit of our Ongiara '76 dedication. This dedication will have to hold all our memories and will have to serve as our "thank you" to them.

Both have lived by the motto, "It is better to give than to receive", but for one day that will have to change. As of today, June 4, 1976, they will receive the recognition they deserve.

"Good morning, we'll proceed."

"May I have your attention please."

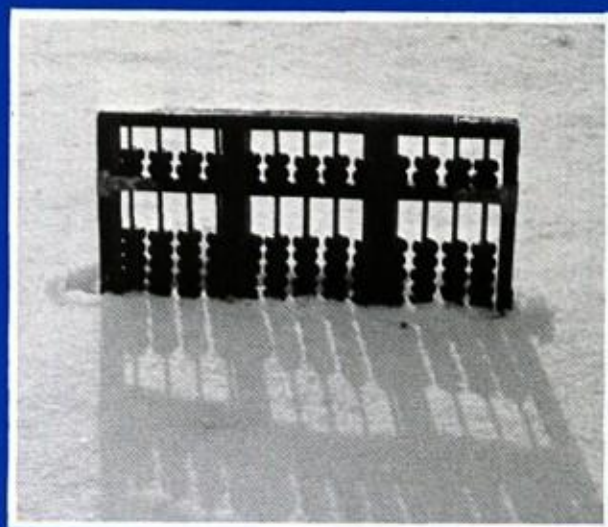

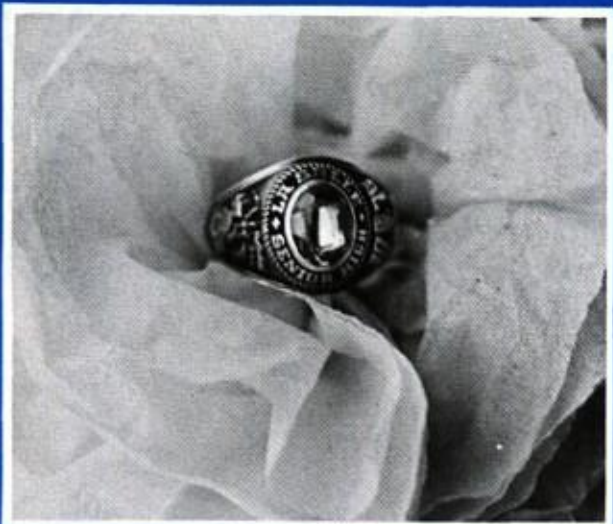

THE 1976 ONGIARA IS OFFICALLY DEDICATED TO MRS. GLORIA TONETTI AND MR. CHARLES BARBER.

CLASS HISTORY

The Class of '76, destined to lead LaSalle through the Bicentennial, began their freshman year in the fall of '72. Though separated with half of the class at the Junior High and the other half at the LaSalle Senior High, we began to show our "spirit" right from the beginning in all our endeavors.

For those of us who remained at L.S.J.H.S., Mr. Joe Contento was our advisor and the following students were elected to hold class offices: Julie Corsaro, President; Terry Manning, Vice-President; Kathy Custode, Recording Secretary; and Charlie Pitarresi, Corresponding Secretary. Later that year, Charlie was elected as Student Council President by the entire student body. Cindy Kledjys was then appointed to fill his position as secretary.

Meanwhile, back at the Senior High, with Mr. Duane Witkop as advisor, elections were held, with the following results: Elaine Villani, President; Diane Wahler, Vice-President; Mary Panosian, Recording Secretary; Kathy Kryzkoski, Corresponding Secretary; Bernie Kuca, Treasurer; and Alisa Pucci, Historian. Joan Stipp had the honor of being Homecoming Princess, representing the Freshman Class in the Queen's Court. Presenting an excellent rendition of "Sesame Street" in the Variety Show, we placed a close second to the Seniors. Following the tradition, we presented the Senior Class with creative centerpieces for their Class Day Banquet.

In our Sophomore year, we were once again united and were led by our newly elected class officers: Bernie Kuca, President; Eda Mascaro, Vice-President; Kathy Custode, Recording Secretary; Annette Bongiovanni, Corresponding Secretary; Laurie Marshanke, Treasurer; and JoAnne Weber, Historian. Eda Mascaro coordinated our Homecoming Activities. Kathy Custode was Sophomore Homecoming Princess. Sue Gunzelmann was Chairperson for our Christmas Decorations Project. A profitable magazine sale was one of the projects which increased the funds in our class treasury. Sharon Giarrizzo and Sue Gunzelmann headed the committee which organized our part of Class Day '74's activities, including the decoration of the auditorium in the colors of the Senior Class, and the presentation of flowers to the Class Day Queen and her court.

In our Junior year, our officers, as voted by the class were Eda Mascaro, President; Sue Gunzelmann, Vice-President; Patti Davis, Recording Secretary; Diane Chiappone, Corresponding Secretary; Laurie Marshanke, Treasurer; and Eileen McNally, Historian. During Homecoming Week, Julie Corsaro was chosen as Princess, and we participated in the Junior-Senior Girls football game. Under the coaching of Joel Holka we "fielded" a great effort but were unable to stop the "senior girls." They defeated us 12-6. Later in the year we challenged the then seniors to a basketball game in which our guys also took part under their coach, Charlie Pitarresi. The Class of '76 also took part in the annual Christmas Decorations Competition under the director of Chairperson Sharon Giarrizzo. As a class, we found time for enjoyment and fun at a winter picnic at Fort Niagara. A summer picnic, with cooperation from the sophomores, was held at Beaver Island State Park. We helped make Class Day memorable for the Seniors by serving them breakfast and lunch, and presenting gifts to the Class of '75 Court at the Class Day Assembly.

At that assembly we also began our Senior Year at LaSalle with the announcement of the class officers: Eda Mascaro, President; Jeff Harvey, Vice-President; Mary Ann Galeziowski, Recording Secretary; Cyndi Williams, Corresponding Secretary; Laurie Marshanke, Treasurer; and Julie Corsaro, Historian. Our first activity as Seniors was the Junior-Senior Girls football game, during Homecoming Week, in which we again showed a determined and spirited effort under head coach Jeff Harvey. We lost. Later that week Julie Corsaro was crowned Homecoming Queen, with Laura Davis and Arlene Nuzum as members of her court. Our entry in the Christmas decorations competition, organized by Karen Bottom, Karen Drozek, and Jayme Gray, was a tremendous success, and placed a close second in the judging.

Our Class Day was held on June 4, with all classes helping to make it the most memorable day for The Class of 1976. The final activity as a class was the Prom at the Parkway — Ramada Inn on June 11, 1976. Graduation ceremonies on June 26, 1976 at the Niagara Falls International Convention Center marked the end of our high school careers. Thus began the second phase of "our days to live, laugh and love."

TIME

Tickling away the moments that make up a dull day, You fritter and waste the hours in and off hand way, Kicking around on a piece of ground in your own home town,
Waiting for someone or something to show you the way.

Tired of lying in the sunshine staying home to watch the rain
You are young and life is long and there is time to kill today, And then one day you will find ten years
have got behind you, No one told you when to run,
you missed the starting gun.

And you run and you run to catch up with the sun, but it's sinking and racing to come up behind you again, The sun is the same in the relative way, but you're older and shorter of breath and one day closer to death.

Every year is getting shorter, never seem to find the time,
Plans that either come to naught or half a page of scribbled lines, Hanging on in quiet desperation is the English way, The time is gone the song is over, thought I'd something more to say.

UNDERCLASS

We have observed these students aspiring to the Bi-Centennial greatness of the Class of '76, often find themselves in the middle of things with a long struggle before them. At the end of their trials, we hope they may someday find a place next to the superior Senior Class. To aid their orientation in this regard, we place the Underclass Divider ten giant steps hence (pages 88-89) midway through their section in the 1976 Ongiara.

FACULTY

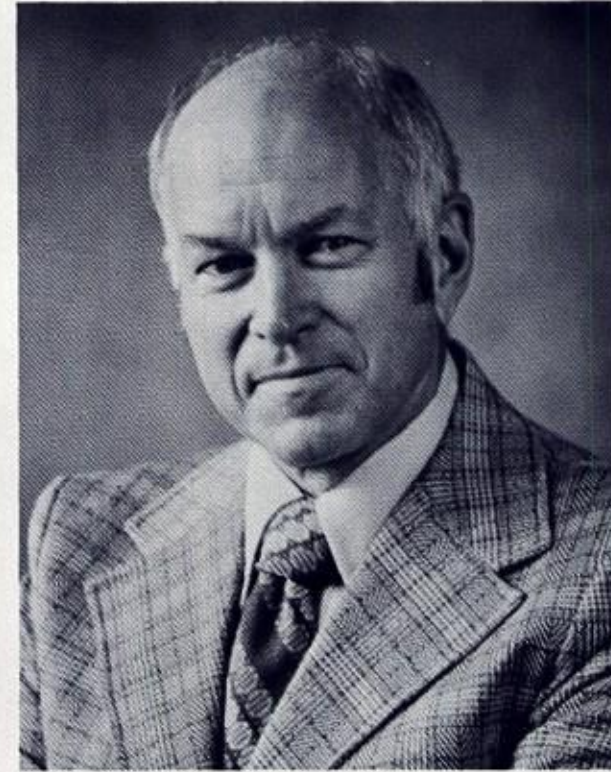

ADMINISTRATION

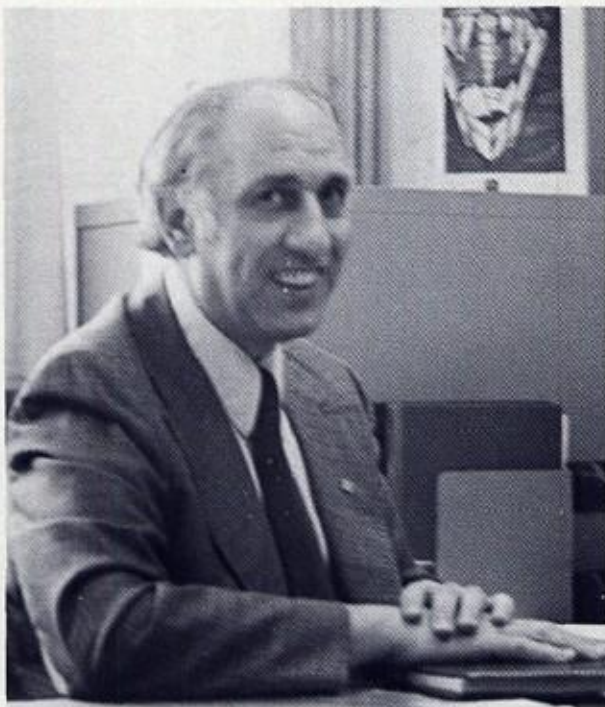

Many administrative changes were made during our school year. Mr. Charles Barber, our vice-principal, was named principal of North Junior High School. Mr. Frank Orfano, formerly vice-principal at Niagara Falls High School, came to LaSalle to replace Mr. Barber. Later, Mr. John Russo came from South Junior to fill the vacancy created by Mr. Ralph Chille's appointment as principal of Gaskill Junior early in September. Our teacher on Special Assignment, Mr. Carmen Grant, became vice-principal at Gaskill Junior.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The staff on Ongiara 1976 realizes this publication could not be possible without the help of many. Our sincere gratitude goes to Mr. & Mrs. Paul Longin, their daughter Vonda, and their assistant Tom. Working with them was a rewarding and enjoyable experience. Besides their excellent quality of photography, their patience, suggestions, and human touch will be long remembered.

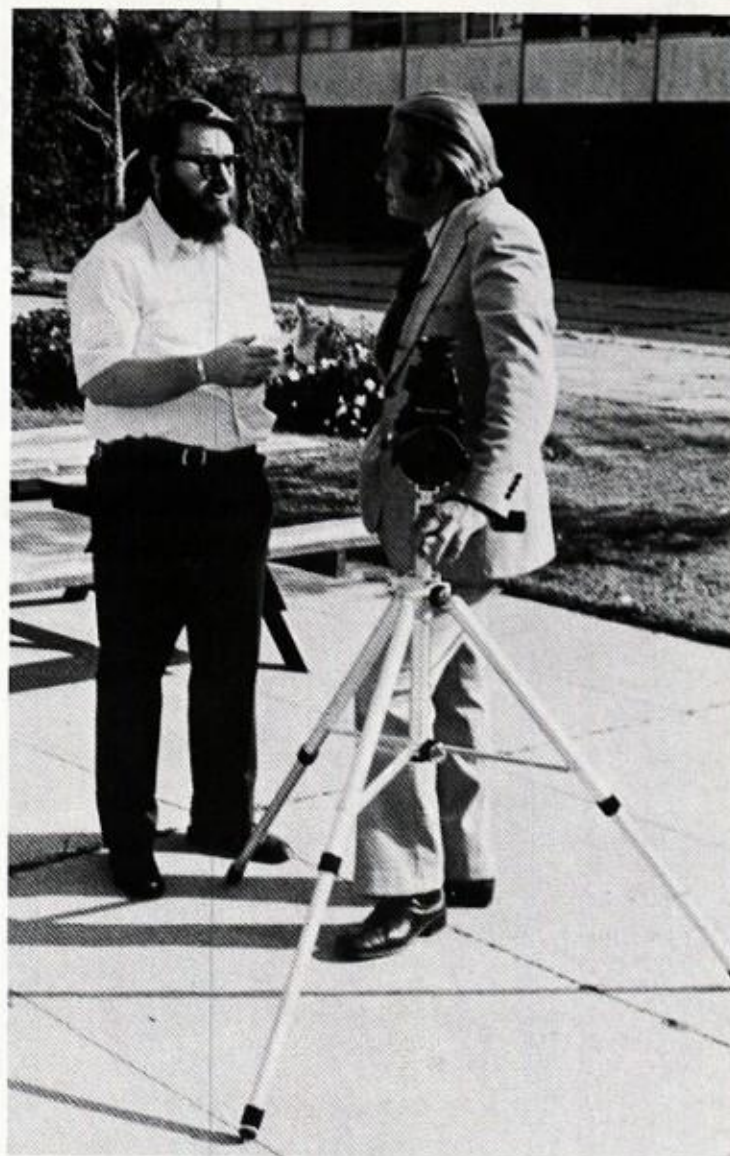

The expertise of Mr. Reimers, our representative from the Western Yearbook Publishing Co. will always be appreciated.

At times, we found the services of the following people extremely valuable. We would like to thank: Mr. Edwin Karwasinski for financial matters; Mrs. Gloria Tonetti and her office compatriots for their patience and offered help; Dr. Marius Risley for his expertise and the occasional use of his room; and last but not least, Mrs. Josephine Morell, our cleaning lady for leaving room 333 until last.

Special recognition goes to Sharon Giarrizzo and Linda Kline for the cover design and various artwork throughout the book, and Mary Rose Franjoline, a member of the staff, who was absent at picture time.

Deadlines could not be met without the willingness of the faculty to allow staff members to miss occasional classes. For this we are grateful.

A special thanks to Mr. William Sdao for his understanding and guidance.

And yes, Mr. Brian Swayze, our advisor, for his hours of devoted . . . ???

Finally to you, the LaSalle Family, for your suggestions, support and purchase of this yearbook.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Grand and Illustrious Class of 1976, being of the soundest mind and memory of those classes, whether predecessors or successors, which shall have passed through the hallowed halls of LaSalle Senior High, do hereby grant and bequeath in our usual magnanimous modus operandi to the parties enumerated below, however undeserving they may be, the following diverse and multifarious articles, although it is understood that the echoes of our presence alone is enough to suffice those we depart from at our revered and eminent educational institution:

ARTICLE I

To the administration and faculty we leave gratitude and appreciation for the guidance of our four-year reign.

ARTICLE II

To our Class Advisor, Mr. Duane Witkop, we leave our thanks for the time and energy he spent advising us. We leave, as well, a lifetime "Blanket" Insurance Policy covering all high risks such as "walking." In addition, we proudly leave him a green-dotted Swiss tuxedo.

ARTICLE III

To the egocentric junior class, though inherently inferior to our intelligence, talent, and dominance, we leave enough make-up and costume jewelry to cover this characteristic and undistinguishing trait. We also leave wall-size mirrors in strategic points around the school so that one can behold for oneself the massive size of one's head, and the proportionately large opening below the nose. We also leave the juniors with the thought that suggests the true philosophy of the meaning of life: "You may have the brawn, but we have the brains, and it's what's upstairs that counts."

ARTICLE IV

To the Now-You-See-It-Now-You-Don't sophomore class, we leave some of our tact and diplomacy for dealing with the obstinate and pertinacious juniors, along with a giant-sized hat pin to be used to burst the junior's bubble, in case it is allowed to surround the entire school campus.

ARTICLE V

To the meek and humble freshmen class, we leave a case of Infra-Rub for the severe cases of stiff necks they will contract when trying to catch a glimpse of their idols, the '76 Seniors. We also leave LaSalle to this insignificant group with the hopes that someday soon they will discover the true value of this institution.

ARTICLE VI

Let the following bequests to individuals also be known:

1. The Ongiara staff leaves the Imperial "Sways" — Kelloggs, so that he may make flakes from his corn. Also we leave Room 333 to next years bonfire committee.
2. Sharon V., Lisa D., and April M., leave certain members of the junior class each a neckbrace in hopes that they will not get whiplash from holding their heads too high.
3. Cathy Burns leaves her speech on figure skating to next years physics classes while studying "fusion of ice."
4. The Senior Members of the wrestling team leave Chris Mitchell a copy of the good book to prove he is not an almighty . . .
5. Jeff, Yanosh, Jim, Joyce, Jan-ette, Big Richie, Paul, and accomplices leave Mr. Buthy a book on "How To Understand Your Students."
6. Bernie leaves her sister Terry, knowing she will carry on the "Kuca Tradition" in its fine style.
7. Dave Centofanti leaves his book "How to Influence Friends and Win People" to all future Student Council Presidential Candidates.
8. The Senior guys leave the Freshman girls.
9. Jayme Gray leaves Mr. Church a whatsamatusi TV, complete with a 72-hour guarantee.
10. Sue Gunzelmann leaves her brother Mike a dictionary in hopes that someday he will learn to spell.
11. Julie Corsaro leaves her crowns to anyone.
12. Kathy K., Diane W., and Robin R. leave the halls quiet.
13. Chris Wilkenson leaves his book "Retire From Football Early" to Bob McDougall.
14. Joel Holka leaves Vince Garito the words to all the Frank Sinatra songs for next season after victories in football.
15. Anne and Darlene leave Mr. Reese a room deodorizer for lab.

16. Sharon Giarrizzo leaves her brother Sal her teddy bear in hopes he can make it through the next year.
17. Eric M. Wagner leaves his "How To Skip Classes and Not Get Caught" book to his brother Carl.
18. Jeff Harvey leaves his brother Rick ten easy lessons on "Causing Trouble and Getting Away With It."
19. The XI girls leave their books on "Color Coordination" to Debbie Zimmerman, Ann Higgins, Rene Niccola and Cathy Gerbasi.
20. Pete Fontanarosa leaves his leisure suits, muscle shirts, suspenders and funny faces to Gary Fiore.
21. Jim Bateman leaves his animal instincts to Lowell Kramer in hopes that someday he too can eat a raw snake.
22. Mike Calvello leaves Mr. Monti a hair styling kit.
23. Tom Gariano leaves "The Bounce" with Gordie Stewart.
24. Jim Myers leaves his collection of nicknames "Hedgehog" and "Bimbo" to Lonnie Woods and his "No Legs" to Dom Zito.
25. Mark Jarosz leaves Mr. Tate, . . . I mean Mr. Maynard, heartbroken.
26. Jim Winkfield, Joel Holka, and Charlie Pitarresi leave Kevin Karwath a spotlight and a mirror so he can prepare for next year's football season.
27. Charley Pitarresi leaves his "Skitz" personality with any two juniors who can withstand the pressure!
28. Rich Fair leaves his book on "How To Win A Free Pizza By Eating The Most Yearbooks."
29. The "It's Epidemic" team leaves Mr. Beachy an autographed picture of Stan Miller.
30. The Senior girls' football team bows out gracefully.
31. Rose MacDonald leaves a broken volume control button to Laurie Dimino.
32. Chris, Teresa, Karen, Julie, Andrea and Nadine leave Mr. Bazzani a bottle of calamine lotion to relieve the burning sensation on his next trip to Florida.
33. The Seniors in Mr. Abel's sixth period chemistry class leave him one eight by ten foot copy of the reference table with a centerfold of Linus Pauling.
34. Brenda Beck leaves her quiet and lady-like manner to Mary Grochala.
35. Tim Ryan leaves next year's hockey team his scoring finesse in clutch situations as well as a saying for difficult times: "It's Gigundous!"
36. T.K., B.K., M.G., K.B., W.K., J.T., and P.K. regretfully leave their favorite booth at MacDonalds, the dead french fries, the microphones in the flower pots, (which may still contain a few french fries), the bleeps, and the phony plastic breakfast to anyone who attends school activities.
37. To all little sisters and their friends M.G. and B.K. leave spyglasses, disguises, and a handbook written by the CIA in hopes that they will learn better tactics.
38. MaryAnn G. leaves her sister 1001 reasons to get out of class, a seat in the bleachers for every sport event, and jokes for every occasion.
